LANDMARK LIVING

@CHANDKHEDA

LIMITED EDITION HOMES

There are homes that are built up over land, measured in square feet. And then, there are homes that are built around a space. A space that is a repository of memories. A space that has been and is the address of legends and luminaries.

A space that is bestowed upon the blessings of nature. The homes built around this space are indeed special. They simply cannot be measured in square feet nor be contained in 'market rate'.

Welcome to one such special place, Chandkheda and an even more special home, Keshva Group Limited to be the chosen homes of a chosen few families, hosted over 30 floors, these are a repository of unlimited stories.

A black and white photograph of a tufted leather sofa. A small, dark, square side table is positioned next to the sofa. On the table sits a dark cup of coffee on a matching saucer, and a thick book is open beneath it. The scene is lit with soft, natural light, creating a cozy and sophisticated atmosphere.
